Members of the Play cast practiced many hours to put on a good performance of "Finders Creepers."

Class Officers

Seniors serving as class officers were Ashley Pike, Vice-President; David Williams, Secretary; Tom Ward, President; and Louise Gallo, Treasurer.

Seniors

As the Senior Class leaves David Anderson High School for the final time, their hearts are filled with memories, and their minds with countless ideas that will remain there for a lifetime.

In their last year, Seniors took a big part in almost all of the scholastic activities. On their own, they held a profitable Christmas Candle sale and a memorable annual Senior Play. Probably, for most of us, the longest remembered, will be the Seniors' participation in winning the Tri-County Football League Crown, spectacular basketball games, golf, and track.

The Class of 1968 will not be easily forgotten here. As they have gained knowledge and wisdom, they leave us with high standards of grades, morals, and ideas to live up to.

Days To Look Forward To . . .

David V. Miller, valedictorian, and Carl Carihfield, salutatorian, lead the procession of graduates to the field at War Memorial Stadium.

David V. Miller, valedictorian, spoke on "In Ourselves Our Future Lies."

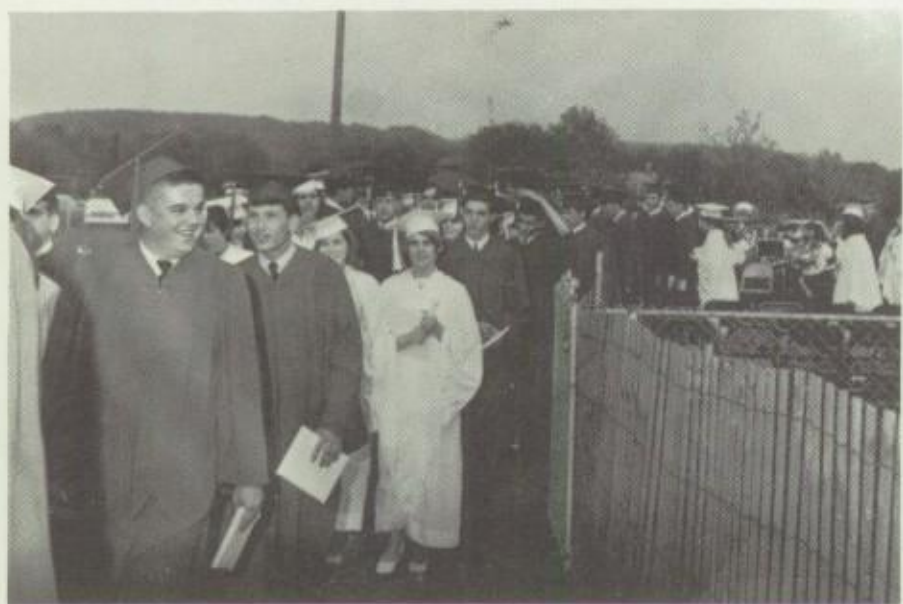

Carl Carihfield, salutatorian, chose "The Practical Idealist."

Doctor Wade Bacon distributed the well-earned diplomas as guests, parents, and friends looked on.

Although threatened by rain, the ceremony went well. The seniors left, one last time, together as a class.

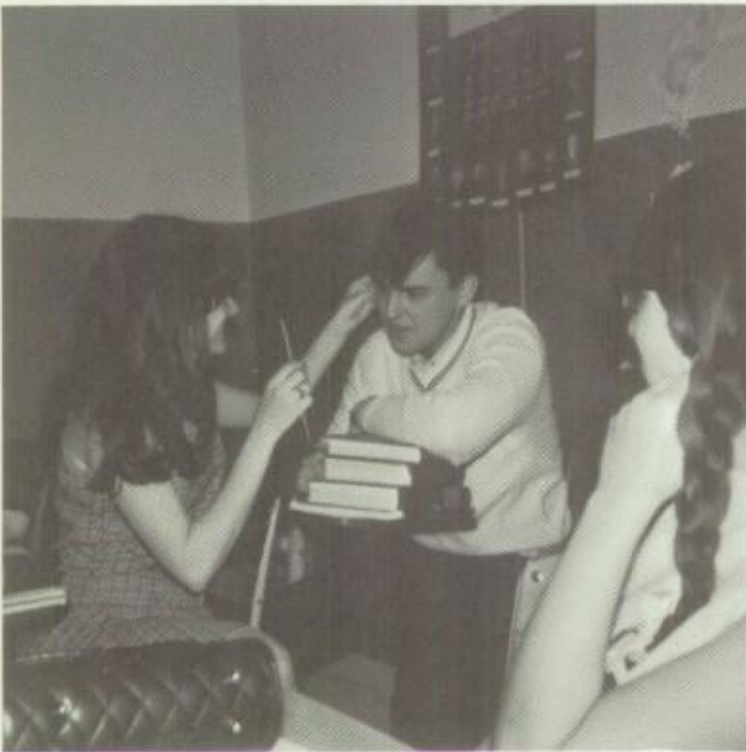

Now Days To Remember.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS - Curt Bacon, president; David Belaney, treasurer; Mary Kennedy, secretary; Doreen Adams, vice-president.

Juniors

Could Nancy be restyling Harry's hair?

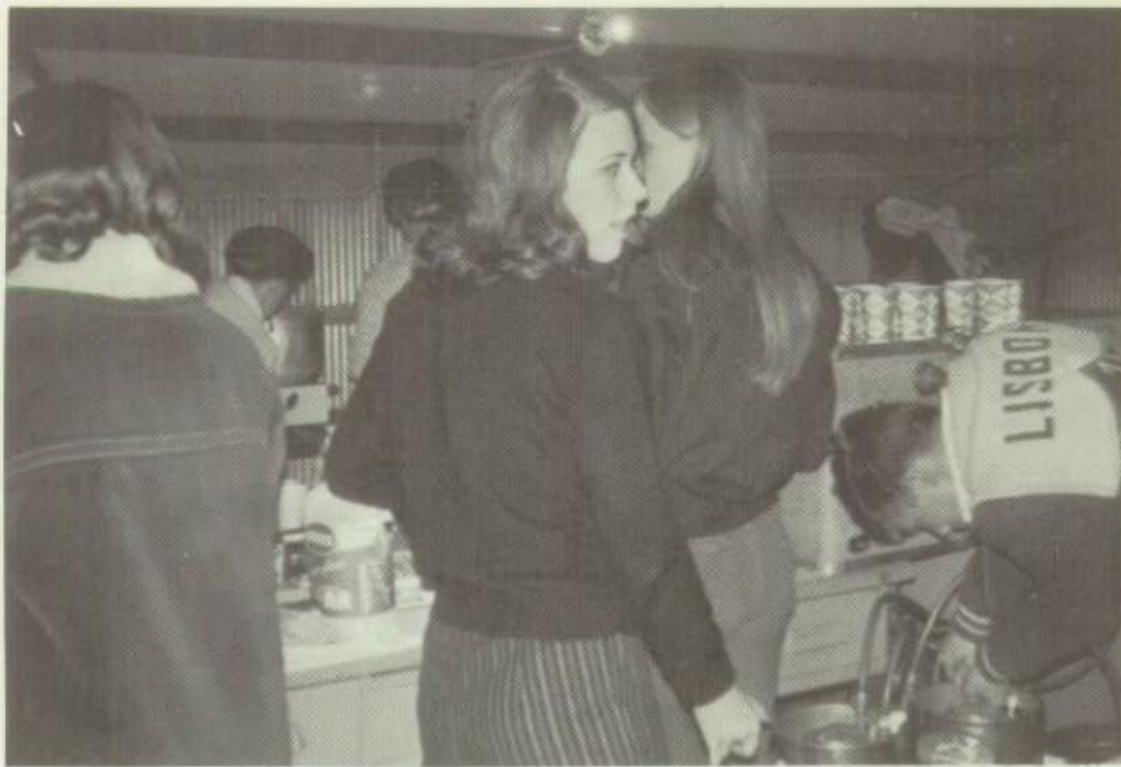

Betsy Blocksom and Mary Kennedy spend their leisure time in the library.

These Juniors spend their noon hours selling sandwiches and obviously - eating them too!

The members of the junior class spent many hours working unselfishly at the football stands.

The Devil tri-captains, Jim Morgan, Garry Toot, and Mike Rut-ecki, led the 67 squad on to victory.

The bonfire rallies, provided by the Booster Club, attracted many football fans.

Mike Rutecki and Garry Toot corner a Youngstown North player, leaving him no where to run.

In an effort to hold the Bulldog's yardage, a Devil tackler stops his opponent.

All the Devil's enthusiasm could not break through this strong Minerva line.

Mr. Bucher, as always, gave us the courage to go on.

Football Homecoming Queen Of 1967

Football Homecoming

The 1967 Football Homecoming was held this year during the Lisbon-East Palestine football game. During the playing of "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi"; the retiring queen, Miss Bobbie Brinker, crowned Miss Karen Mercina the 1967 Homecoming Queen. The evening was also highlighted by the fact that we defeated the Bulldogs 13-8.

Members of the Queen's court included Linda Altomare, senior attendant; Stevie Chengalis, junior attendant, Frances Mercina, sophomore attendant; and Lynn James, freshman attendant.

Bobbie crowns Karen Homecoming Queen for 1967.

Queen Louise Gallo and King John Richardson reigned over the enchanting "Oriental Gardens."

Junior-Senior Prom 1967

On the evening of May 5, 1967 the D.A.H.S. gymnasium was transformed into the exotic "Oriental Gardens."

The seniors and juniors crossed a bridge and stone path which led them to the brightly colored essence of the Orient.

Queen Louise Gallo and King John Richardson reigned over the prom from their throne amidst the flowers and palms of the gardens.

The "New Breed" flanked by two buddhas and the setting sun provided music for the prom goers.

The highlight of the evening was the coronation of the Junior King and Queen.

Gone now is the happiness that each experienced. All that remains of this enchanting evening are wonderful memories.

No one will ever forget the oriental gardens; it will always be a night to cherish.

Enchantment

Prom servers take a break to view the coronation ceremony.

Valli Ieropoli, like many of the Juniors, worked hard to create a beautiful prom.

Janine Ashton and Bret Apple carry the crowns to the coronation scene.

Prom goers were greeted by this mural in the entrance.

A radiant Queen Debbie Rupp, and King Bill Farmer reigned.

Neptune's Court

Beyond the twelve mile reef in Neptune's Court was the site of the 1968 prom on the evening of April 26.

A huge life-like whale from which sea goddesses served punch guarded one corner of the gym. A life-like octopus and a dolphin occupied places of honor in a beautiful rock garden. Sea creatures and fish net completed the walls and sound effects added to the brilliancy of the court.

Completing the splendor of "Neptune's Court" were Queen Debbie Rupp and King Bill Farmer.

A finer court could not be found in any of the seven seas.

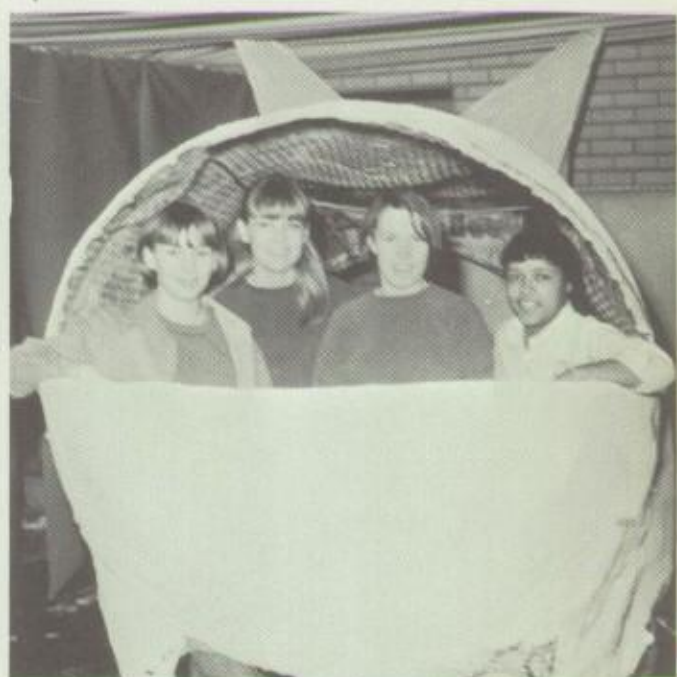

Junior girls work diligently on the cave entrance.

These hard workers helped complete the walls as the prom began to take shape.

With the co-operation of the class and Mr. Ashton, the Juniors transformed the gymnasium into a magnificent kingdom of the sea.

These girls found time to pose for the photographer.

Retiring Queen Louise Gallo and King John Richardson pose with the new royalty. Serving as crown bearers were Judy Taylor and Patrick Belaney.

The Vocal Music department had a membership of eighty-nine members singing this year. There were four large groups at DAHS: The Girls Glee Club, the Boys Glee Club, the Mixed Chorus, and the Robed Choir. For the more advanced singers there were two Mixed Ensembles, a Girls Ensemble, and a Boys Ensemble. Some members from the choruses sang for public appearances about the community.

The first public appearance for the vocal department was the annual Thanksgiving Assembly, and a crowd numbering 700 attended "Christmas Vespers."

The department presented the annual assembly before Easter on Wednesday, April 10.

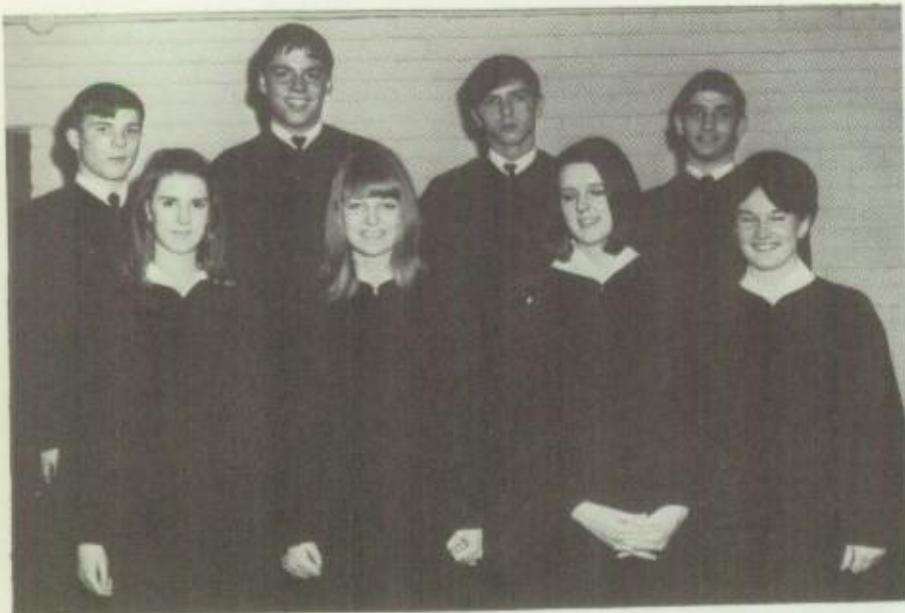

Baccalaureate marked the closing of choral activities with the Robed Choir presenting two numbers for the Sunday evening service.
